Warrens and Tomah are about 17 minutes apart by car.

Lodging

If you want to break up your drive, there is lodging nearby in Warrens at Three Bears Lodge starting at $60.00 a night. See <http://www.threebearsresort.com/>. There's also other lodging nearby.

Activities

September is cranberry harvest time. In fact, the Cranberry Festival is the following weekend (September 23 - 25). But we should be able to find cranberries the week before.

Visit the Cranberry Discovery Center in Warrens. To tour the museum costs $5.00 or less (seniors get a break). It includes a visit to the Taste Test Kitchen & Ice Cream Parlor. Of course cranberries are the main ingredient of many of the offerings. See <http://www.discovercranberries.com/wisconsin-cranberry-museum-tour/>.

Go on a self-guided tour in Tomah. There is a tour of the Cranberry Country and a tour of Amish Country. Go to <http://www.iomag.com/magazine/tours/0775621001455054963?short> To see a description of both tours.

Visit the Necedah National Wildlife Preserve. Necedah National Wildlife Refuge has one of the largest savanna restorations taking place in Wisconsin. <https://www.fws.gov/refuge/necedah/>
